

Terms of Reference for Core Team members of the EU EOM to Kosovo Early Parliamentary Elections

Possible tentative election dates 22 or 29 September, or 06 October 2019

Following the resignation of Prime Minister Ramush Haradinaj on 22 July 2019, early parliamentary elections are likely to be announced in the coming weeks. On 22 August, the Assembly might vote on its dissolution, and new elections are constitutionally mandated to be held between 30 and 45 calendar days after dissolution of Assembly. The EU has observed elections in Kosovo since 2013 and the Kosovo authorities have indicated that the EU will again be invited to observe.

In order to be able to deploy an EU EOM timely, this call for candidatures is launched under suspensive clause depending on the announcement of the Early Parliamentary Elections, receipt of an invitation from Kosovar authorities, decision of the HR/VP to deploy an EU EOM and the signature of an Administrative Arrangement between EU and Kosovo authorities. This call for candidatures can be cancelled and/or its timetable altered according to the actual election timeframe.

The present terms of reference offer selection criteria for the Core Team (excluding the Deputy Chief Observer whose Terms of Reference are published in a separate call) of the European Union Election Observation Mission to Kosovo. In addition to the Chief Observer and the Deputy Chief Observer, the Core Team is composed of 8 experts, whose individual terms of reference are outlined below.

Preliminary remarks

1. European Union Election Observation Missions (EU EOMs) are independent in their findings and conclusions, but must, at all times, adhere to the standard EU methodology for election observation in both political/electoral and implementation/security matters, as outlined in the “Handbook for European Union Election Observation.”¹ EU EOMs must follow standard guidelines, models and practices as specified by the European Commission and the European External Action Service (EEAS). All mission members must follow the EU Code of Conduct for election observation, as well as adhere to the UN “Declaration of Principles for International Election Observation and Code of Conduct for International Election Observers”².
2. The Core Team is an essential component of EU EOMs. The respective roles and responsibilities of all retained experts is a key element of a successful mission. All members of the Core Team must be experienced in election observation or related activities, fluent in the working languages of the mission, and be able to work cooperatively in a team. Experience and training within EU missions and initiatives will be considered an asset.

¹ http://ec.europa.eu/europeaid/what/humanrights/election_observation_missions/documents/eu_election_observation_handbook_en.pdf

² http://ec.europa.eu/europeaid/observer/declaration_of_principles_code_of_conduct_fr.pdf

3. Please note that due to the evolving context of elections, the following Terms of Reference offer a general overview of the requested job profiles that is potentially subject to changes. The final version including the detailed description of the final profiles and responsibilities of each analyst/expert will be provided in the contract.
4. All Core Team members are required to participate in EU EOM briefings and debriefings organised by the EEAS and the European Commission. These activities are an integral part of the mission.

The working and reporting language of the mission will be English.

The final report will be submitted in English.

CHIEF OBSERVER (CO)

The CO has the overall responsibility for the EU EOM. S/he is appointed directly by the High Representative/Vice President. The CO's duties, tasks and responsibilities are detailed in the annex attached to her/his contract.

DEPUTY CHIEF OBSERVER (DCO)

As a Special Adviser to the High Representative for Foreign Policy/Vice President of the European Commission (HR/VP), the role of the DCO is to assist the Chief Observer in the conduct of the EOM and in managing its core team. The DCO also replaces the Chief Observer whenever absent, including in the diplomatic and media contacts essential to the functioning of the EOM. The DCO will be present in the field during the full duration of the mission as well as its preparatory, winding-down phases and final report presentation.

(1) POLITICAL ANALYST

The Political Analyst is responsible for conducting a political assessment of the election process and will provide information concerning the historical, cultural and political background on the country as well as ongoing developments. S/he will work under the supervision of the CO and DCO.

S/he will:

1. Undertake comprehensive political analysis of the electoral process (before, during and after the elections) and produce benchmarks to assess the genuine competitiveness of the electoral process;
2. Gain a broad understanding of the historical, cultural, social and political context in which the elections are being held and produce and assessment of historic patterns of political alignment, overall party system, voting patterns and political affiliations;
3. Maintain regular relations with political parties, candidates and political analysts in coordination with the DCO throughout the deployment of the mission. Gain official and unofficial insight into the internal workings of the main parties and their consequences to the process, including, inter alia, acceptance of results;

4. Assess the legal, regulatory and administrative framework managing political activities, including for political parties, but also concerning NGO registration and activities. Assess the approach of political parties regarding the participation of women, and politically disenfranchised, ethnic minority and/or socially vulnerable groups;
5. Assess political parties' compliance with the Code of Conduct and the application of enforcement mechanisms;
6. Maintain close relations with domestic observer groups and other national or international non- governmental civil society organisations (NGOs) involved in the electoral process at both national and local levels, including the OSCE;
7. Provide assessment and background knowledge and material on a wide range of interlocutors including candidates, political parties, state authorities, military, media groups, journalists and decision-makers in the country;
8. Produce regular reporting on political developments for Core Team and Observers and provide briefing, as required. In consultation with the LTO coordinator, prepare relevant questions for the LTO weekly reports and process and interpret the results thereof;
9. Develop a cultural awareness briefing for mission staff taking into consideration: human rights, religious, customs and practices in relation to the electoral process. In conjunction with Operations and Security experts, brief mission members about culturally sensitive issues and the appropriate behaviour to be adopted by observers in the course of their activities;
10. Assess the role and participation of women, ethnic and religious minorities and socially vulnerable groups in the country;
11. Support the DCO in developing the analytical framework and implementing the EU election observation methodology;
12. Participate in observer briefings, debriefings and Core Team meetings;
13. Contribute to the preparation of interim reports, the preliminary statement and the final report, including with well targeted recommendations. Contribute to the internal report, including suggesting any methodological improvements and information on possible areas of technical assistance;
14. Assess the approach of the political parties regarding the participation of women and minorities in elections within all levels of the election administration in coordination with the Election Analyst;

15. Perform any other duties as required for the good functioning of the EU EOM.
16. If requested be available for the return visit and roundtable.

(2) CAMPAIGN FINANCE ANALYST

The Campaign Finance Analyst will conduct an assessment of the existing regulatory framework for political and campaigning finance in Kosovo. S/he will analyse political party and candidate campaigning finance in line with international and regional standards for genuine democratic elections and national legislation paying special attention to possible misuse of state resources. S/he will work under the guidance of CO and DCO in close coordination with the Political, Legal, Media, and Election Analysts as well as the Observer Coordinators.

S/he will:

1. Become familiar with relevant EU publications such as the EU Election Observation Handbook and the Compendium of International Standards for Elections;
2. Become familiar with international and regional obligations, commitments, and best practice, relevant to political and campaign finance in Kosovo;
3. Acquire knowledge of the Kosovo election laws and all other national legislation relevant to political and campaign finance;
4. Acquire knowledge of the political party landscape, campaign modus operandi, as well as of the election administration structure and the role of the judiciary in ensuring sound campaign finance;
5. Monitor and analyse the use of state resources to determine whether it is a hindrance to the level playing field, to the extent it is feasible in the context of the EU EOM;
6. Monitor the enforcement and compliance with finance reporting requirements of political parties and candidates;
7. Monitor complaints and appeals related to campaign finances, in particular the way they are dealt with by the competent authorities (deadlines, appropriate sanctions, enforcement mechanisms etc);
8. Follow the monitoring of campaigning finance mechanisms put in place by domestic and other observer groups; establish coordination mechanisms with domestic and other observers working in relevant fields;
9. Liaise with the Political, Media, Legal and Election Analysts, particularly when meeting political parties and candidates and with the election administration;
10. Develop questionnaires and relevant observation tools for the LTOs and STOs in coordination with the Observer Coordinator(s), and the Political and Media Analysts;
11. Participate in Core Team, LTO, and STO meetings, briefings and debriefings, as required;
12. Participate in drafting of the Core Team weekly and specific reports;
13. Contribute to the preparation of interim reports, the preliminary statement and the final report, including with well targeted recommendations;
14. Contribute to the internal report, including suggesting any methodological improvements and information on possible areas of technical assistance;
15. Perform any other duties as required for the good functioning of the EU EOM.

(3) ELECTORAL ANALYST

The Electoral Analyst is responsible for assessing the performance of the election administration and other public authorities in the preparation and conduct of the electoral process. S/he will analyse the effectiveness of the relationship between the Central Electoral Commission (CEC), with other administrations (particularly the Ministry of Internal Affairs, the Ministry of Economic Development (Department of Public Communications), the Ministry of Defence, the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Justice and the judiciary – including the Supreme Court and the Constitutional Court, the prosecutor's office) and international technical assistance and electoral support, in particular OSCE. The Election Analyst should coordinate closely and share information with the Observer Coordinator, the Data Analyst, the Legal, Political, Campaign Finance and Media Analysts. S/he will work under the supervision of the CO and DCO.

S/he will:

1. Become familiar with the legal and regulatory framework for the election; assess the implementation of the national election legislation, at the level of the Central Election Commission of Kosovo and other governmental bodies responsible for administering elections, concerning, in particular, the delimitation of constituencies, voter registration, political party registration, candidate registration and the polling, counting and tabulation of results;
2. Assess the performance of the election administration and other governmental bodies concerning technical preparations for the election. Special attention should be paid to the measures taken to promote women's participation, and the Out of Kosovo voting (OoK) process;
3. Assess the potential for electoral violence before/during/after the electoral process;
4. Attend sessions of the election administration, follow the issues on its agenda, meet with relevant members of the different technical bodies that constitute the election management, and provide the EU EOM with information about the meetings and complaints brought to the election administration;
5. Assess the performance of the election administration, the extent of its effectiveness, independence, impartiality and transparent operation, and the degree to which it has the confidence of election stakeholders;
6. Assess the election administration's capacity, in relation to voter education initiatives, training of election officials, material production and distribution;
7. Maintain regular relations with election analysts in other international observation missions, and international technical assistance provided to the CEC, including OSCE;

8. Conduct regular meetings with election analysts from NGOs (domestic and international) involved in the electoral process. Liaise with domestic observers' groups;
9. Support the DCO in developing the analytical framework and implementing the EU election observation methodology;
10. In consultation with all other Core Team members and IT specialist, prepare STO report forms, ensuring that the information gathered can be processed effectively;
11. Coordinate, with the Data Analyst, the analysis of the data contained in observer report forms and highlight clearly anomalous results;
12. Brief mission members on important issues regarding their areas of responsibility;
13. Participate in observer briefings, debriefings and Core Team meetings;
14. Contribute to the preparation of interim reports, preliminary statements and the final report, including with well targeted recommendations;
15. Contribute to the internal report, including suggesting any methodological improvements and information on possible areas of technical assistance;
16. Perform any other duties as required for the good functioning of the EU EOM;
17. If requested be available for the return visit and roundtable.

(4) LEGAL/GENDER/HUMAN RIGHTS ANALYST

The Legal Analyst is responsible for providing an analysis of the legal framework governing the elections in the Republic of Kosovo in accordance with international and regional commitments and obligations to democratic elections, taking into consideration the country's legislation and regulations related to elections. S/he will analyse processes related to petitions and election offences. This will include looking at the role of the judiciary, the security forces including the police, and the election administration. S/he will also look at political party registration, political finance regulation (political party and electoral campaign) and enforcement, and candidate registration. The Analyst will take into consideration Kosovo's international and regional commitments in promoting human rights, minority and gender equality. The Legal Analyst should coordinate closely and share information with the Election, Political, Campaign Finance and Media Analysts. S/he will support Core Team colleagues in their use of international law related to elections. S/he will work under the supervision of the CO and DCO.

S/he will:

1. Have acquired solid grasp of the legal and regulatory framework for elections, as well as international and regional commitments and obligations applicable to democratic elections.

In this context the “Compendium of International Standards for Elections” is an important background document;

2. Assess the role and participation of women and minorities in the country, and related human rights subjects, as required by the DCO and in coordination with other Core Team members;
3. Assess the participation of women and minorities in the electoral process & evaluate the approach of the election administration with regards to women and minorities, the registration of women and minorities as voters and the representation of minorities at all levels within the electoral administration;
4. Ensure that the Chief Observer and Core Team members are aware of international and regional commitments and obligations for elections;
5. Comprehensively analyse the national legislation, in particular concerning universal, equal and secret suffrage, right to vote and to stand as a candidate, conditions for the exercise of fundamental freedoms, constituency delimitation, election administration, voter registration, political party registration, campaign finance (in conjunction with the Campaign Finance Analyst), candidate registration, campaign, Out of Kosovo voting, media (in conjunction with the Media Analyst), voting, counting and tabulation, complaints and appeals;
6. Assess legislative amendment proposals for consistency with international law, good practice;
7. Assess compliance of national legislation with Kosovo’s international and regional commitments and obligations for democratic elections;
8. Assess electoral legislation from a gender perspective, in accordance with international standards for elections, focusing in particular on the participation of women and socially vulnerable people and special needs groups. Assess whether election legislation is respected in practice, so that all persons can enjoy their rights;
9. Contribute to the EU EOM assessment of whether the elections are conducted in accordance with the legal framework as set out in national legislation as well as international and regional commitments and obligations for elections;
10. Assess and analyse legal aspects mainly of the activity of the judiciary/election administration, in particular:
 - The capability of the judiciary/election administration in implementing the legal framework consistently;
 - The role of the judiciary/election administration in dispute resolution and election process supervision;
 - The conduct and effectiveness of complaints and appeals processes;

11. Log, categorise and maintain in a database key election-related complaint and appeals, filed by parties, candidates, voters and other stakeholders;
12. In coordination with the Political Analyst and the Media Analyst, monitor closely any arrests or detentions impacting fundamental rights underlying elections and the circumstances surrounding such arrest/detentions;
13. Attempt to record, assess and analyse election-related arrests, investigations and prosecutions. This includes looking at the respective roles played by the police, election administration, courts and any other administration concerned by elections;
14. Meet regularly with judicial and other relevant bodies, and attend court hearings relating to petitions, appeals and electoral offence charges;
15. Liaise with international organisations and agencies, including OSCE as well as with domestic NGOs specialised in legal, human rights, minority and gender issues;
16. Analyse, summarise and share with other CT members the Long Term Observers (LTOs) reports and suggest specific tasks for the LTOs concerning those specific topics;
17. Participate in observer briefings, debriefings and team meetings;
18. Contribute to the preparation of interim reports, the preliminary statement and the final report, including with well targeted recommendations. Contribute to the internal report, including suggestions of methodological improvements and information on possible areas of technical assistance;
19. Perform any other duties required for the good functioning of the EU EOM;
20. If requested be available for the return visit and roundtable.

(5) MEDIA ANALYST

The Media Analyst is responsible for conducting an assessment of the media coverage during the election period, as well as making an assessment of the overall media environment, media freedoms, maintaining relations with the media. S/he will work under the supervision of the CO and DCO.

S/he will:

1. Identify the most important traditional and social media outlets to be monitored in terms of distribution, audience, ownership and impact. As far as possible, assess the private media sector structures and ownership and its potential impact on pluralistic information;
2. Monitor the most important traditional and social media outlets, in close cooperation with all experts in the CT for input in their own areas of responsibility;

3. Set up a traditional and social media monitoring unit, including both staff recruitment and training, technical set up and management;
4. Prepare (or receive from another institution/organisation) a basic daily media digest of political and election related items for the EU EOM;
5. Coordinate in liaison with the Observer Coordinator the implementation of media monitoring conducted by LTOs in their areas of responsibility. Prepare relevant questions for the LTOs weekly reports and process and interpret the results thereof;
6. Monitor the impact of the EOM's public outreach strategy on traditional and social media, in cooperation with the press officer;
7. Assess whether the media, both public and private, provide balanced coverage of the election campaign in accordance with the existing legislation, using both quantitative and qualitative analysis;
8. Assess the tone of the traditional and social media coverage of the campaign including recording any statements that "go beyond acceptable limits";
9. In cooperation with the political and campaign finance analysts, devise a system for monitoring/following the Social Network Sites (SNS) of the main candidates and other opinion makers. This may include referring to findings from credible civil society organisations and other analysts. To analyse:
 - a. The strategies used by candidates and parties to campaign on social platforms.
 - b. The presence of dangerous speech, incitement to violence and defamation.
 - c. The type, volume and effect of disinformation disseminated during the campaign.
 - d. Any possible interference in the integrity of the electoral process via bots, trolls and other forms of orchestrated campaigns.
 - e. Whether social platforms act in accordance with the existing legislation on elections and the campaign, including on campaign finance;
 - f. The reliability and credibility of online opinion polls.
 - g. The impact of the EOM's public outreach strategy on social networks, in cooperation with the press officer.
10. Assess the relevant supervisory bodies' capacity and role in regulation of the Internet and online campaign, including campaign finance with regards to social media (in cooperation with other CT analysts)
11. Assess the quantity and range of official voter information items distributed in the media;
12. Assess the coverage of women and minorities issues in the media, the access of women and minorities to the media, and other human rights issues coverage, as required by the DCO and in coordination with other Core Team members;

13. Evaluate the freedom of speech in the media and their ability for pluralistic political expression;
14. Assess the media related legal framework and codes of conduct in liaison with the Legal Analyst;
15. Assess any complaints directed by political parties against the media;
16. Assess the legal mechanisms to handle media related complaints including the performance of media regulatory bodies during the elections;
17. Collate and analyse all material available on opinion polls;
18. Maintain contact with representatives of the media sector and institutions, domestic or international observers civil society groups engaged in media monitoring, especially in regard to the public broadcasters and other media;
19. Ensure that findings of the media monitoring are communicated regularly to LTOs;
20. Advise the CO and DCO on strategies to achieve maximum visibility for the EU EOM;
21. Prepare in coordination with the Security Expert, daily briefings on election and political violence;
22. Participate in briefings, debriefings and Core Team meetings;
23. Contribute to the preparation of interim reports, the preliminary statement and the final report, including with well targeted recommendations;
24. Contribute to the internal report, including suggesting any methodological improvements and information on possible areas of technical assistance;
25. Perform any other duties as required for the good functioning of the EU EOM.
26. If requested be available for the return visit and roundtable.

(6) PRESS AND PUBLIC OUTREACH OFFICER

The Press and Public Outreach Officer is responsible for organising the EU EOM's communication and public outreach strategy, handle relations with the media, and organise the EU EOM's press conferences. S/he will work under the supervision of the CO and DCO.

S/he will:

1. Advise the CO and DCO on strategies to achieve maximum visibility for the EU EOM in the national and international media at all stages of the Mission's deployment;

2. Develop an overall public outreach strategy making use of traditional and social media, networks of non-governmental organisations, political parties, universities etc;
3. Establish and maintain contact with the local and international media;
4. Prepare a comprehensive press distribution list for both local and international media;
5. Monitor the impact of the EU EOM's public outreach strategy on traditional and social media, in cooperation with the media analyst;
6. Ensure that "EU Visibility guidelines for external actions" are followed;
7. Coordinate the development of the mission website and accounts on social networks as well as of mission related audio-visual material, in terms of design and contents. This task should be done in cooperation with all other mission members and in close coordination with the European Union institutions in Brussels, ensuring the widest possible outreach through the EU's social media channels (press and communication services in Brussels and in the EU Office in Kosovo);
8. Prepare a "Mission Factsheet" to explain the mandate and objectives of the EU EOM to the general public in close coordination with the European Union institutions in Brussels;
9. Assist the CO and DCO in the preparation of media interviews, press releases and press conferences, as instructed by CO/DCO;
10. Ensure the translation of the relevant information and documents issued by the EU EOM to the public;
11. Ensure that the public outreach strategies are gender and minority (ethnic groups/ marginalised communities) sensitive;
12. Ensure maximum distribution of the EU EOM's press releases, preliminary statements and final report both locally and internationally;
13. Ensure, in coordination with the Observer Coordinator, that EU EOM press releases and statements are communicated to observers and that the observers are made aware of any potentially sensitive statement before being made public;

14. Participate in briefings, debriefings and Core Team meetings;
15. If requested by the CO, DCO or the European Institutions, prepare drafts of interim reports, the preliminary statement, and the final report ensuring that the EU guidelines are carefully and rigorously followed and that the quality of language is of the highest possible standards. Contribute to the internal report, including suggesting any methodological improvements and information on possible areas of technical assistance;
16. Perform any other duties as required for the good functioning of the EU EOM;
17. Be available for the return visit and roundtable.

(7) OBSERVER COORDINATOR

The Observer Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the activities of observers and providing the link between the field and the Core Team. S/he will work under the supervision of the CO and DCO.

S/he will:

1. In coordination with other Core Team members and the Service Provider (including Operations and Security Experts), ensure the highest possible quality of observer briefings and debriefings and that the necessary arrangements are properly prepared: organise the meetings, developing session agendas, ensure that observers understand the EU observation methodology, identify and select the relevant speakers, prepare the necessary materials for observer briefing and debriefing sessions, ensuring that observers will be provided with quality information on the European Union, its goals, institutions and composition, its foreign policy, particularly the EU election support policy, the European Instrument for Democracy and Human Rights (EIDHR) and the European Commission role in electoral assistance and election observation;
2. Ensure that all observers are fully aware of the EU EOM Codes of Conduct (including guidelines on harassment) and the consequence of failing to abide by them. In case any problem arises (e.g. harassment allegations, inappropriate behaviour) immediately inform the DCO;
3. Ensure full compliance with the methodology as outlined in the new Handbook for European Union Election Observation;
4. Under guidance of DCO, in coordination with the Service Provider (in particular Operations and Security experts) draw, plan and organise the deployment and movements for LTOs and STOs/LSTOs/European Parliament Delegation in a manner that ensures representative observation coverage and takes into account security considerations;

5. Inform observers of activities of the election administration and on programmes developed at central level by civil society organisations and instruct them on their possible impact at local level, as well as the level of coordination desirable with these groups; liaise with observers in the field and brief Observers' teams on a regular basis (daily, whenever possible) regarding important issues identified by the Core Team and the Service Provider which affect their activities;
6. In consultation with other Core Team members, prepare LTO report forms, ensuring that the information contained can be processed effectively. Ensure the distribution and collection of the observer reporting forms;
7. Ensure that observer report formats adequately tackle human rights, women and minorities issues, as required by the DCO;
8. Receive, analyse and carefully summarise observer reports for the Core Team and CO and notify the Core Team members and the Service Provider of specific issues within their areas of responsibility as identified by the observers;
9. Prepare weekly summaries of reports received from observers;
10. Carefully and rigorously catalogue all irregularities reported by observers throughout the deployment period on a database, for use in weekly reports, the preliminary statement and final report and inclusion as an annex to the final report;
11. Coordinate with the Legal, the Election and the Data Analysts on the development of a database for Election Day and provide corresponding information and training to observers on statistical data collection;
12. Provide technical assistance to the Data Analyst and/or the Legal and the Election Analysts in preparation of the statistical analyses based on observation data collected by observers;
13. Ensure that evaluations of LTOs and STOs follow European Commission guidelines. Include the evaluations in the roster as indicated by the European Commission;
14. Provide the Commission with all LTO evaluations, STO certificates, LTO and STO End of Mission reports in line with the Commission guidelines. Provide the Commission with a comprehensive synthesis of all evaluations, certificates and End of Mission report before the closure of the mission;
15. Ensure that all evaluations are signed by observers, the Observer Coordinator and the DCO, that they are updated in the EU EOM roster (the Observer Coordinator will sign a letter of confidentiality on the information obtained in the roster);
16. Coordinate, in cooperation with the DCO, the integration of locally recruited diplomatic STOs, observers from non EU member states and MEP delegations in the EU EOM;

17. Prepare summaries of the main observer findings for the preparation of EU EOM interim reports, the preliminary statement and the final report;
18. Coordinate and draft, under the guidance of the DCO and with the contribution of other analysts, and based on evaluations from observers, the internal final report, including feedback on individual terms of reference for each analyst and for observers, modus operandi of the mission, lessons learnt and good practices, and suggestions for methodological improvements and information on possible areas of technical assistance;
19. Perform any other duties as required for the good functioning of the EU EOM.

(8) DATA ANALYST

The Data Analyst is responsible, in close co-ordination with the DCO, the Election Analyst and the Observer Coordinator, for the design of analytical tools for the treatment of key election findings based on observation data collected by long term and short- term observers (LTOs and STOs). S/he will work under the supervision of the CO and DCO.

S/he will:

1. Under the supervision of the Election Analyst, design and prepare an appropriate database system to facilitate the analysis of the demographic, civil registration and voter registration data collected by the mission, assess representation of woman and socially vulnerable categories on the voter register, including access to personal documentation and civil registration.
2. In co-ordination with the Election Analyst and the Observer Coordinator, ensure that LTOs and STOs are briefed on the structures and statistical characteristics of the voter list and on civil and registration procedures.
3. Contribute to the design of an appropriate database to facilitate the analysis of the data collected by observer teams. In co-ordination with the Election Analyst, contribute to the design and content of EU observer reporting electronic forms, ensuring that the information contained can be processed effectively by the database.
4. Prepare a briefing on election day electronic forms and use of tablets for observers from home and if deemed necessary be available for a video conference during LTOs briefing.
5. In co-ordination with the Election Analyst provide input on the electronic system of the tabulation of results, on its integrity and on any data available on the tabulation of results from official or mission sources in terms of potential anomalies.
6. Train and supervise data entry clerk(s) responsible for data entry on E day, if necessary.
7. Attend briefings and debriefings as requested.

8. Perform other duty required for the good functioning of the EU/EOM.